Travelling in 2027? Read this first.

The visa-free arrangement published on our website is valid through 31 December 2026. Every departure in this brochure leaves in 2027, and entry requirements for 2027 travel will be whatever policy applies at the time you travel — not what is printed here. CTS will tell every booked traveller well before departure if a visa becomes necessary, and will help with the application. Visa costs are not included in tour prices unless stated.

BEST TIME TO TRAVEL

The CTS seasonal guide recommends April–May (spring) and September–October (autumn): mild temperatures, lower crowds and clear skies across most regions. The departures in this brochure run from March to November — the calendar on page 20 lists every date.

THE CITIES

Eight cities, eight Chinas.

Most CTS itineraries are built around these eight. 25 more cities and towns follow.

01

Beijing 北京

An unparalleled gateway to Chinese civilisation — imperial grandeur that feels planned for you, contemporary energy that just happens. The Forbidden City is the world's largest imperial palace complex.

CONTINUED OVERLEAF Chongqing, Chengdu, Zhangjiajie and Guilin — and then 25 more cities and towns, from the water towns around Shanghai to Lhasa and the Silk Road.

Beyond the classics.

Four cities that turn a China trip into something Kiwis quietly rave about back home.

05

Chongqing 重庆

A vertical mountain city that stacks streets and skyscrapers across so many levels that GPS gives up. The signature draw is a Chongqing hotpot — bolder, more molten málà than Chengdu next door.

SEE → HONGYADONG · CIQIKOU OLD TOWN · LIZIBA MONORAIL

TOURS China Unveiled · China Panorama · Legacy of China · Natural China

06

Chengdu 成都

Chengdu, the capital of Sichuan province, is one of China's most relaxed and liveable cities. It is best known as the home of the giant panda. The city is the undisputed capital of Sichuan cuisine.

HOW THIS BROCHURE WORKS

Four ways to travel with CTS.

Eight guided tours with 30 scheduled departures in 2027, fourteen short stopovers, and a tailor-made desk if none of them is quite your trip. Here is the quickest way to narrow it down.

PAGES 10–13 · 4 TOURS · 19 DEPARTURES

Discovery Collection

The classic routes, 10 to 15 days, four- and five-star hotels or similar. This is where most first trips to China start. From NZ$2,699pp.

PAGES 14–17 · 4 TOURS · 11 DEPARTURES

Signature Collection

Longer and further — 17 to 27 days, five-star hotels or similar, river cruises and first-class high-speed rail on selected journeys. From NZ$7,999pp.

Stopovers

Two to five days in one Chinese city, to slot into a journey to Europe, Japan, South Korea or home to New Zealand. From NZ$875pp, land package.

PAGE 22

Tailor-made

Your dates, your pace, your interests. A specialist shapes the route with you before anything is booked. No obligation.

Still deciding? Start with the date, not the itinerary.

March 2027 has four Discovery departures — Best of China, A Tale of Two Cities, China Unveiled and Shanghai & Beyond. May and June add the long journeys: China Panorama, Silk Road, Legacy of China and Natural China. Later departures run through to November. The calendar on page 20 lists every date and price in one place, and pages 18–19 compare the tours side by side.

- Admission to scheduled attractions

Are flights included?

"Do not assume they are. Check the Included and Not Included sections on the individual tour page. International airfare, through-ticketing and connection changes are confirmed separately unless a product explicitly states otherwise."

In plain terms: stopovers are a land package and the international airfare is arranged separately. Check the Included and Not Included list on the route you want, or ask us and we'll price the flights with it. Per person, twin share.

TAILOR-MADE CHINA

A journey designed around you

Your dates. Your pace. Your interests.

Tailor-made China. Your kind of journey. If none of the eight tours in this brochure is quite your trip, tell our Auckland specialists what you love, and we'll help shape a China or Asia holiday that feels like you.

HOW IT WORKS

1 Tell us your ideas

A few details are enough to begin. Tell us what matters most to you.

2 Shape it together

Your specialist helps refine the route, pace, hotels and budget.

3 Confirm your journey

Review your proposal, inclusions and availability before booking.

No obligation. A real specialist, from the first conversation.

Start planning at ctstours.co.nz/tailor-made, or call 0800 CTS 888 to talk it through with a China specialist.

NOT SURE YET?

Not sure about dates or destinations? Leave them flexible. Your specialist will help you work it out. Submitting the enquiry form does not make a booking.

SHOPPING

Your shopping time is yours.

No compulsory shopping stops — your shopping time is yours. Where a CTS itinerary includes a visit to a local speciality store or workshop, there is no obligation to buy and no minimum spend.

WHERE OUR ITINERARIES ACTUALLY PUT YOU

- Shanghai — Nanjing Road and Yuyuan Garden are on the Best of China itinerary; Nanjing Road is also on Shanghai & Beyond.
- Xi'an — the Muslim Quarter (Huimin Street), on Best of China and A Tale of Two Cities.
- Beijing — the Silk Market, with the hutong pedi-cab tour, on Best of China and A Tale of Two Cities.
- Chongqing — Ciqikou ancient town, on China Unveiled and Natural China.

Where an itinerary does include a silk, jade or pearl workshop — and several do — it is named in the day-by-day schedule on ctstours.co.nz, so you can read it before you book rather than discover it on the coach.

Five things Kiwis get wrong.

China moves fast, especially in the cities. A few things to sort before you fly.

01 Mobile payment is the default.

Download Alipay or WeChat Pay before you fly — both now support international NZ-issued cards. In the big cities almost every transaction is a QR code. Rural areas and smaller shops still prefer cash, so carry some RMB too.

02 Google won't work. Baidu will.

Google Maps is unreliable inside China. Use Baidu Maps or Gaode Maps for navigation. For menu translation, download Pleco — it works fully offline and reads menus through the camera.

03 Set up a VPN before you leave.

Instagram, Facebook, WhatsApp, YouTube and Gmail all face restrictions. Install and test a VPN on your phone before you leave New Zealand — or embrace the digital break.

04 Basic Mandarin goes a long way.

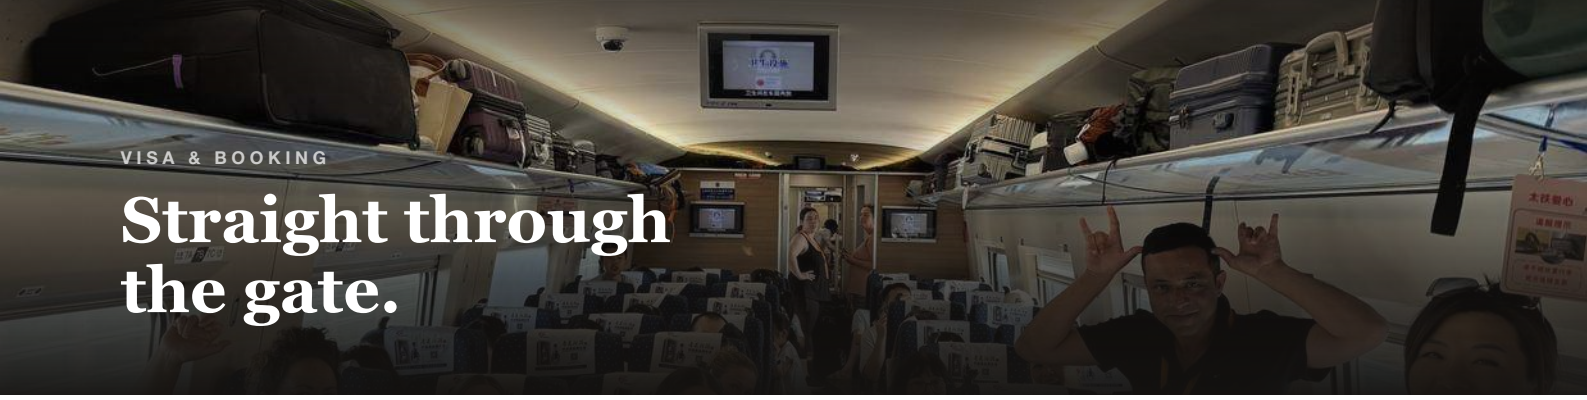

Nǐ hǎo (hello), xièxie (thank you) and duōshǎo qián (how much) is 90% of the effort. Locals genuinely appreciate the try, and it turns transactions into small conversations.

05 Tell your bank you're going.

New Zealand card fraud systems can block a first Chinese ATM withdrawal automatically. A quick call to your bank ahead of time avoids getting locked out on day one.

ONE THING YOU DO NOT NEED TO SORT

Your CTS guide handles tickets, queues, transfers and the language at every stop on the itinerary. These five are simply the things that sit outside a guide's reach — your phone, your bank and your own free afternoons.

VISA & BOOKING

Straight through the gate.

30 Days visa-free for NZ passport holders

Valid until 31 December 2026. Tourism, business, family visits, exchange and transit. Multiple entries. No application forms. For 2027 departures, entry requirements will be whatever policy applies at the time you travel — CTS will tell you before departure if a visa is needed and will help with the application.

WHAT TO BRING AT IMMIGRATION

- NZ passport with blank pages for stamps
- Return flight booking, dated within the permitted stay
- Proof of accommodation — your CTS tour itinerary can serve as proof
- Sufficient funds (credit cards plus some cash)

WHEN YOU STILL NEED A VISA

- Working in China → Z-Visa
- Study or internship → X-Visa
- Staying longer than the visa-free allowance → L-Visa
- Long-term residence → consult the Embassy

HOW TO BOOK

Deposit to confirm

A non-refundable deposit of NZ$1,000 per person confirms your tour booking (land-only stopovers: NZ$400 per person; bookings under NZ$1,000 per person are paid in full), payable within 3 working days of reserving. Your booking is not confirmed until CTS receives it. Full terms: ctstours.co.nz/terms-and-conditions.

YOUR MONEY IS PROTECTED

CTS Tours is a TAANZ member and all client funds sit in a TAANZ-bonded trust account. Card payments are processed through PCI-DSS compliant gateways.
